Washington Place School Tour Guidelines

- Washington Place offers school tours for classes at the 4th grade level and above.
- Students with knowledge about Hawaiian History are preferable.
- Interested school staff must make tour arrangements at least one month prior to the requested tour date.
- The Office of the Governor reserves the right to reassign your tour at any time.
- The maximum capacity for school groups is (80) students.
- School groups will be broken down into smaller tour groups and must arrive to the property in staggered time frames.
- School tours take approximately 30 minutes per tour group.
- Washington Place does not require an admission fee. However, donations to the Washington Place Foundation are welcomed. The Washington Place Foundation assists with the historic research, preservation, and restoration of the home.
- School staff are responsible to prepare their students with information from the Washington Place brochure, which may be obtained from the Washington Place website at www.hawaii.gov/gov/washington_place.
- Students will be responsible to answer (5) questions asked by a Washington Place docent at the time of their tour. Questions will be formed from the brochure.
